All Saints' Day

Today we recognize November 1 as All Saints' Day. It is a day set aside each year on the Christian calendar to honor people who served faithfully as disciples of Jesus during their lives. All Saints' Day has been celebrated since the fourth century. We pause to think about brothers and sisters in Christ who have influenced us and gone before us, leading the way. We are inspired by their faithfulness and obedience to God. What can we learn from Christians throughout history and how can they inspire us to serve God and others more faithfully?

Think about people in your life who have influenced your discipleship and silently fill in the blanks with their names as these statements are read:

Chime. Someone who taught me about God

Pause.

Chime. Someone who loved God with all their heart

Pause.

Chime. Someone who humbly served God

Pause.

Chime. Someone whose faith in God I want to emulate

Pause.

Chime once more to end.
